Deadline - Friday, 14th April, 2023

KERN NATIONAL NETWORK
FOR FLOURISHING IN MEDICINE
Character. Caring. Practical Wisdom.

The 2023 KNN Conference

2023 Abstract Submission Form*

The Kern National Network for Flourishing in Medicine looks forward to your contribution(s) to the 2023 KNN Annual Conference and the important work of elevating character, caring, practical wisdom and flourishing in the profession of medicine. The 2023 conference will be held in Milwaukee from the afternoon of Wednesday, September 20, 2023 to noon on Friday, September 22, 2023 and will have a particular focus on the innovative ways that flourishing is being integrated into medicine's learning and practice environments. For more information on the KNN's definition and framework for flourishing, please click here.

Strong abstracts will be those that include:

- evidence-based practices
- innovative programming or pilots
- multi-institutional involvement
- clear connection to one or more elements of the KNN Framework for Flourishing
- interactivity for conference attendees

If your submission is accepted, each presenter** is required to register for the conference at the $95 introductory rate, as well as cover their own travel and lodging (a hotel block will be available for conference guest bookings). Conference meals will be provided.

**The KNN is committed to involving medical students in the KNN Annual Conference. Student co-presenters will be waived the $95 conference fee and students listed as lead presenters (1 per accepted submission) will have hotel accommodations paid by the KNN.

We are accepting submissions in the following categories:

- presentations (60-minute sessions on an innovative project/program that advances flourishing in medicine. May be programmed with other presenting group(s). Presentation should leave time for questions and discussion.)
- workshops (75 to 90-minute interactive sessions that introduce participants to an innovative practice, tool or skill they can take back to their sites for adaptation or implementation)
- roundtables (30 to 60 minute discussions on a topic or question with a group of up to 10)
- poster (2-hour in-person cocktail reception where program/project or research is shared and a representative is available to answer questions; posters will also be shared online through the KNN Online Community; at least one person from your project must attend in-person to present at the poster reception)

Presenter Policies and Acknowledgement

If your proposal is accepted, you will need to agree to our presenter terms and conditions when submitting your RSVP. These policies clarify our expectations for presenters and help us deliver an exceptional educational experience. Among other things, they include the following:

- All travel costs (i.e. airfare, mileage, hotel accommodations) to attend are the responsibility of each presenter (see exception for 1 lead student presenter per submission as described above).

- All presenters will adhere to conference and presentation requests from the KNN and will respond in a timely manner based on the deadlines created. Presentations and session materials are subject to review and approval by KNN.
- Submitted session materials for accepted proposals may be featured in KNN materials, including, but not limited to, printed media, social media, website, conference app, etc.
